Heinie Groh, With Three Hits, Leads Assault On Hugmen.

By GRANTLAND RICE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 4 .- Just as the cheering citizens of Brainerd, Minn., were in the act of applying the fuse to the big bonfire built to celebrate the first world series victory of Bullet Joe Bush, their esteemed townsman a sudden noise halted the flaming torch in mid-air. This sudden noise. wafted by wireless through unmeas-ured spaces, sounded for a moment as if a number of baseball bats were hit-ting something hard and round; and this is precisely what the racket was that in the eighth luning turned the torch of triumph into the gray ashes of swift and unexpected Yankee

For seven innings in the presenof 40,000 human beings, male and female, Bullet Joe and his famous Minnesota smoke had the Giants gasping for air. At the start of the eighth he was leading Art Nehf. 2 to 0, with the battle howl of Yankee fans ringing pleasantly and honorously in his ears, when without any warning, the top of the Giant batting order crawled from the dugout, climbed his broad frame and clubbed Bullet Joe into lethal submission just a fraction of a minute before Waite Hoyt could reach rifle pit in time to save the day. he last desperate, driving rush convention prepared for a bitter fight against the chain bank system. But the big banking interests, which always have been sufficient to block action on the issue before, mysteriously abandoned the fight and let the small bankers—who comprise the vast majority of the 11.000 delegates attending—rush through a sharp condemnatory resolution without any material opposition. The big bankers even abandoned their original plan to attempt to soften the tone of the resolution and not a word was changed in the draft made by the independents.
